Step into the charm of this beautifully maintained character bungalow, perfectly blending vintage appeal with modern updates. This inner-city home is situated on a 37' wide lot and offers a variety of possibilities—move in and enjoy or explore development opportunities! This bright and open layout features 2 bedrooms and a bonus sunroom space in the secondary bedroom — perfect for an office, reading nook or little one's play space. Sunlight pours into this home, highlighting the high 9-foot ceilings, crown molding and 1912 millwork. These details — and the clawfoot tub — add to the home's timeless character. The kitchen is both functional and boasts all new appliances (2023/2024), a newly installed hood range (2024), and a convenient breakfast bar. Modern comforts have not been overlooked with updated plumbing and electrical systems, along with a high-efficiency furnace that ensures this well-insulated home keeps energy costs low. Outside, the expansive 75' and newly graveled driveway (2022) provides ample parking for 3-4 vehicles in addition to the detached single garage. Experience the best of inner-city living with quick access to downtown, vibrant 17th Ave, Marda Loop, shops, restaurants and cafes, all while savoring the peacefulness of this quiet community and well-maintained property. This location offers the perfect balance of inner-city convenience and quaint neighbourhood charm.
