As you enter you are welcomed by the comfortable and large living room. The kitchen and two bedrooms are on the second level. The kitchen has so much light with two windows, one over the sink that looks out onto the roadway. Great working area with lots of counter space and cupboards. True farmhouse style the table is inside the kitchen. Down the hall are the two bedrooms, currently the primary bedroom is being used as a family room with its easy access to the back deck. This area can be used for a multitude of things. There is crawl space under the living room which is perfect for storage. The backyard is private and has a good size deck and still some grassy area. There are two gates, one leads to the front yard and the other down the path to your parking spot. Extra parking spots maybe available for a fee. Plenty of street parking is right out your door for guests or they can park in the designated guest parking within the complex. This home is one of a kind with many upgrades throughout.
